HAPPY RETIREMENT

Dr. Monath will be retiring from
Center for Urologic Care of Berks County
June 30, 2024

James Monath,
MD, FACS

To facilitate a smooth transition of care, you will be seen by another provider at our practice based on their expertise and commitment to delivering high-quality care. Please call our office during normal business hours if you have any questions.

Pregnancy and Kidney Stones

Kidney stones can be a particular challenge for pregnant women. The way stones are diagnosed and treated may need to be adjusted during pregnancy for the safety of the mother and her baby.

Mail-In Semen Analysis Testing

Center For Urologic Care of Berks County partners with Fellow to provide mail-in semen analysis testing for our patients. Testing with Fellow provides an in-depth analysis of your fertility without leaving home. If recommended to you by our providers, you'll buy the Fellow kit, produce a sample, and mail it back to Fellow's CLIA-certified lab.
